From the President's Desk

As you may have figured out, any user of the ranges NEED TO SIGN THE RANGE BOOK. No one is looking to crucify anyone, just sign the book – that's all we ask. We have added a new page to the website displaying members who are shooting on the range but failing to sign in. We may need to take further steps in the future if the practice continues.

Spring Work Party

April 27th at 8 a.m. Join us, many hands make light work, and there is a job for every skill level and ability! Meet other club members, and stay for lunch!

Game Dinner 2024

The game dinner was held Saturday, March 2nd, and was a huge success! Big thanks to Sean McCarty and Terry Lockrow for planning, organizing and putting on this fun get together! Many people help out each year to make this run smoothly.

~~~~~

Please note:

- When you are in the club house, please check that the cooler doors are closed
- Be sure to clean up on the ranges after you shoot. Leave it in better shape than when you got there. If you carry it in, please carry it out. If you find the trash bin at the range is full, take it to the dumpster by the clubhouse to empty, and return it to its location.
- If you break something on a range (gong chains, target stands, etc.) please notify an officer or chairman so that it can be repaired.
- Our website and Facebook pages are updated regularly so remember to like us there. Remind your fellow member friends to update their e-mail addresses if they aren't getting club notifications through e-mail.

Ask Ron:

Does my guest need to sign in on the range log?

Yes, please have your guest sign under your name and note that they are your guest. All members must sign in on the range log, as well.

The newsletter is published 6 times per year; February, April, June, August, October and December. If you have something you'd like published in the club newsletter, please submit via email no later than the 15th of the month preceding publication to Susan DeBonis at sdebonis107@gmail.com
